On the 50-yard line

By JOHN WILCHA

Caesar's Palace paid $4 million to become the site of the Heisman-Leland fight. The reason the deal was to give $500,000 to gamblers (especially ones they know are home losers) and let them lose $20 or $30 thousand each at the casino.

The gamblers think they are getting free tickets, but more than likely will go home broke.

Marvin Franer, Joe's son, stopped Guy Canale after four rounds of action before the Heisman-Leland fight. Local fight fans remember Canale — he beat Scrimm here in 1971. He's about two months ago on ESPN.

San Francisco coach Bill Walsh on how the Oakland football plan often goes astray.

"For the Bills game last year, we had 47 pass plays that went."

"The only thing I can't do is run."

We all know how women go mad at us men when we turn on the tube to watch a sporting event.

Well, we've and girlfriends, I came up with a solution — no pre-recorded sports are one big soap opera.

We'll take for example the U.S. Open Tennis Tournament a few weeks ago.

In his last match to get to the final four he made a "nausea obscenity" gesture with his racket toward an official which cost him $100. He has been trying to win this tournament the last few years to be claim four U.S. Open championships.

John McEnroe, single the new No. 1 beat of tennis won last year's championship.

He's not liked by a lot of people in tennis — see if he can maintain his cool and not start making obscenities to the officials.

Vitas Gerulaitis, single, dating of New York City might like to hang out at Club 54. The practice partner of the No. 1 man, he's the underdog of the final four.

Born Borg, the man with the long hair, is the darling of tennis. A sex symbol, he is married and makes over a million a year on tennis, and has never won the U.S. Open.

No, soap opera fans, I'm sure you can't do it and find somebody to like or dislike and spend an afternoon with your husband.

Young football fans, if you want to join the NFL Super Pro Club, just send name, address, name of favorite team, plus a $6 check or money order to: NFL Super Pro Club, P.O. Box 888, Trenton, N.J. 08650.

You'll receive a newsletter, the official NFL issue book, playing tips, fines, penalties, the Great NFL Football NFL standings board, club flying saucer, team deals, Super Bowl poster, a membership card and an on-air fashion transfer to your favorite team.

The women's portion was captured by Rudy's, late of Simpson. They defeated 1-inch Hill Taitor Pass in the final game.

1-1. Sally Black was voted tourney MVP.

The men's unorganized division was won by Joe Holt Plus. They defeated Hawaiian Club, last year's champs, by the score of 3-1. Walter Loftus was MVP of this division. The men's major division was captured by Takahashi of Greenfield Township.

They defeated Pavane's, last year's champs, 7-6 in eight innings. Tourney MVP was Jimmy Gallo.

Tournament co-directors Bob and Jan Wright thank anyone involved with this year's tourney — the people who worked behind the stand, umpires, team playing.

Domestic Singles

WASHINGTON — In 1980 more than 1.3 million households of unmarried couples existed, compared with $23,000 in 1970.

Wrong player

The MIRROR erroneously identified the Lakeland High football player in a photograph which appeared in last week's issue. The correct player was Steve Gallone who sports uniform number 31 for the Chiefs.

Trail trims Chargers

The game was to decide who was the best team in the league. The game had the favorite team drive down field on its first possession, score and see eight minutes off the clock. The game also had the favorite team see important drives stopped by the clock in each half. The game was between the Carbondale Area Chargers, the preseason favorite, and the Lackawanna Trail Lions. Trail came out on top 20-12 on a game that showed lots of offense. The Chargers received the opening kickoff and marched 77 yards for the touchdown. The opening drive featured straight-ahead football. Behind the blocking of Rupp, Hickey, Gillette, Muta, and Hunter, the Chargers' fullback J. M. Marra and tailback Dave Pettinato rumbled their way down field for the 6-0 lead. Pettinato scoring on a six-yard plunge. The point after attempt by Cortese was no good. After that, the Charger fans thought they were going to have a picnic. But anyone knows when Jim Miller's and Rich Kotch's teams meet each other it has been no picnic. In their first possession, decided to give us fans something to cheer about.

The Lions put together a 54-yard drive with Brian Drake going over for the score. Trail fumbled at the 10-yard line. The conversion failed and Trail led 10-0.

The two teams then exchanged fumbles with Paul Cominsky recovering a Trail fumble at the Lions' 36.

The Chargers then went to work on the Lions. Pettinato ran for a first down and then John Walker hit Tony Cortese with a pass to bring the ball to the eight-yard line. The drive ended with Pettinato being stopped at the one-yard line with no time on the clock.

The Lions came out roaring in the third quarter, moving the ball 80 yards on only five plays. Mr. Brian Drake, ran it in from the 19-yard line. Trail's two-point conversion failed and they led 12-6.

After three plays the Chargers fumbled the ball again. Brian Drake recovered for the Lions on the Charger 42.

It took the Lions eight plays to score. Drake took it in for an 18-6 lead. Drerger ran for the two-point conversion for a 20-6 lead.

The Chargers, who wouldn't die, drove down to the Trail 10-yard line before they were stopped.

Trail, on its first possession, decided to give us fans something to cheer about.

Walsh and Joe Cerra captured the All-Season Championship of Orazzi's Golf League on Sunday, Sept. 13, at the Honesdale Golf Course. They won over the team of Harry Larson and Bob Fallon. The match was closely contested with the outcome of victory decided in the final hole. The long drives of Larson and the steady play of Walsh and Cerra, made an interesting match throughout the nine holes. A special golf tournament was held under the direction of Dave Brister assisted by Bob Donahue. John Falvo was the first flight winner with Peter Cunningham, runner-up. Jim Hicks was the second flight winner with Dave Brister, runner-up. The third flight was won by Mario Genevieve with Fred Streek, runner-up. The closest to the pin contest was won by John Falvo on the No. 3 hole by Bob Donahue on the No. 5 hole. An awards banquet was held in the evening at Orazzi's Restaurant. Trophies were awarded to the champions — Walsh and Cerra and to the runners-up Larson and Fallon. Prizes were awarded to all flight winners and to the special contest winners. All league members express their thanks to Danny and Dorothy Orazzi for their generosity and to Walter and Helen Powell for their hospitality throughout the season.
